

STOODLEY'S TAVERN

Home to the family of James Stoodley, who served in the French and Indian War. Stoodley's Tavern was a popular community gathering place in the 1760s.

TYPE OF EVENTS

Stoodley's Tavern, also known as the Education Center, can accommodate meetings, presentations, retreats and small gatherings.

CAPACITY

Stoodley's Tavern can accommodate groups of 5 to 45 people in various rooms.

FEATURES

- Some kitchen facilities
- Retractable projection screen and flat screen monitor
- Ample tables and chairs*
* It is the renter's responsibility to acquire any additional tables, chairs and equipment that are needed.
- Onsite parking*
* The rental base fee includes five (5) spaces in the Hancock Street parking lot during regular Museum hours. Additional spaces may be available after the Museum has closed.

OTHER CONSIDERATIONS

- LINENS/DISHWASHER: The renter is responsible for linens and dishware.
- TRASH: The Museum has a "carry in / carry out" trash and recycling policy.
- ALCOHOL: Alcohol must be served by a person or caterer with a New Hampshire liquor license or TIPS certification.
- INSURANCE: A certificate of insurance (or one-day event insurance) must be provided by renter if alcohol is being served.

RENTAL FEE

- $400 for up to four hours
* Discounts may be available for non-profit organizations

STOODLEY'S TAVERN

Home to the family of James Stoodley, who served in the French and Indian War. Stoodley's Tavern was a popular community gathering place in the 1760s.

